[Docket Nos. EC96-19-017 and ER96-1663-018]

Pacific Gas and Electric Company, San Diego Gas & Electric Company, and Southern California Edison Company; Notice of Filing

March 4, 1998.

Take notice that on March 3, 1998, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (ISO), filed for Commission acceptance in this docket, pursuant to Section 205 of the Federal Power Act, an application to amend the ISO Tariff, including the ISO Protocols, and a motion for waiver of the 60-day notice requirement. The ISO requests that the proposed amendments be made effective as of the ISO Operations Date.

The ISO states the Amendment No. 4 would provide (1) A mechanism to resolve mismatches in Inter-Scheduling Coordinator Trades; (2) a mechanism to allow Scheduling coordinators to buy back and sell back Ancillary Services in the Hour-Ahead Market; (3) a clarification providing for the use of Day-Ahead Market Clearing Process to allocate Replacement Reserves; (4) amendments to conform the ISO Tariff provisions on Black Start and Voltage Support to contractual agreements between the ISO and providers of Black Start Voltage Support; (5) clarification of the payments process for Reliability Must-Run Contracts pursuant to Section 5.2.7 of the ISO Tariff; (6) clarification of definitions for the Imbalance Energy calculation; (7) a simplification of the calculation of the Usage Charge relating to Participating to debits; (8) amendments necessary to reflect the limitations of a temporary manual workaround for assessing Wheeling Access Charges until a recently discovered software variance can be corrected; (9) amendments to various default Usage Charge provisions to address gaming opportunities; and (10) deletion of the requirement that the ISO publish the Hour-Ahead GMMs. The ISO states that the proposed amendments are necessary for the initial operations of the ISO.

The ISO additionally requests that the Commission allow an automatic termination, upon seven (7) days notice, of proposed Section 7.1.4.4 of the ISO Tariff.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 385.211 and 18 CFR 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before March 16, 1998. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. GT98-21-000]

Questar Pipeline Company; Notice of Tariff Filing

March 5, 1998.

Take notice that on March 2, 1998, Questar Pipeline Company (Questar), tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, Third Revised Sheet No. 1, First Revised Sheet No. 1B, Seventh Revised Sheet No. 40 and First Revised Sheet No. 160, to be effective April 1, 1998.

Questar states that the proposed revised tariff sheets update the Table of Contents contained in its FERC Gas Tariff by correctly identifying the location and description of tariff provisions listed in the General Terms and Conditions. These proposed technical changes are required due to pagination of various tariff sheets that were filed by Questar to become effective during 1997.

Questar states further that a copy of this filing has been served upon its customers, the Public Service Commission of Utah and the Wyoming Public Service Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests should be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
